Dear Pete:

I have been meaning to write you for several months but with a new job, a reorganization problem, an acute intelligence situation, an engagement and finally a marriage and wedding trip, I have fallen far behind in correspondence.

STAT In answer to your letter of March 6th, I will not be in Washington on March 23rd or March 24th. If that week-end is the only time that you will be here, I suggest that you get in touch with [redacted] who, as you know, is working with me and can tell you about any of the developments in this Agency.

With best personal regards,

Very sincerely,

WILLIAM H. JACKSON
